

Our Mission: To create Home Owner Association transparency and accountability that serves homeowners, both collectively and individually, through making information available to homeowners that is not dependent on contractor advertising. This information will inform homeowners of current HOA and CAI "patterns" that often destroy individual property rights,*diminish home equity values,* jeopardize community values,* marginalize and retaliate against individuals who speak to improving their community by exposing existing HOA and CAI patterns of abuse.